

*Ad Hoc Committee*PROPOSED NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE NO. 2COORDINATION OF COLLECTION ACTIVITIES ABROAD

The following overall policies and objectives are established by the National Security Council for the interdepartmental coordination of foreign intelligence collection activities, so that measures may be taken promptly to effect sound and efficient utilization of the various departmental collecting and reporting facilities abroad:

1. a. There shall be an allocation within certain broad categories of agency responsibility for collection abroad, as follows:

Political	Department of State
Cultural.	Department of State
Sociological.	Department of State
Military.	Department of the Army
Naval Air

Economic)
Scientific)	As in b below Technological)

*Separate paper
dissent to CIA.
AEC obtains from Ad Hoc.*

- b. By agreement between the Director of Central Intelligence and the intelligence chiefs of the departments and their designated representatives, the various economic and scientific intelligence subjects shall be allocated to our respective departments in accordance with their dominant interests; except that a subject which is of common concern to more than one department but of primary concern to none may be so allocated to the Central Intelligence Agency. (Note: The representatives on the ad hoc committee of the other agencies wish to use the following sentence instead of ~~the following~~ paragraph 1b:

↳ "Each agency in accordance with its respective needs.")

2. Intelligence information ~~and material~~, no matter by whom collected, shall, wherever possible, be transmitted immediately to the field representative of the agency most concerned. However, the collector may also send copies to or otherwise inform his own agency.

CONFIDENTIAL

3. The senior U. S. representative in each foreign area where the United States maintains a foreign post shall, within the spirit of the principles enunciated herein, be responsible for the coordination of all normal collection activities in his area.

4. The collecting and reporting facilities of each of the agencies shall be utilized so as to avoid unproductive duplication and uncoordinated overlap and to insure within budgetary limitations that full flow of intelligence information which is the major need of all departments and agencies for the accomplishment of their respective missions.

5. There shall be free and unrestricted interdepartmental exchange of intelligence information to meet the recognized secondary needs of each department and agency for intelligence usually obtained or prepared by other departments or agencies.

6. Full utilization shall be made of the individual initiative and favorable contacts of agencies' representatives.

7. For the effective accomplishment of the national intelligence mission, representatives abroad of all departments and agencies are individually responsible for the collection and appropriate transmission of all intelligence information and intelligence of possible usefulness which may come into their possession.

8. The Director of Central Intelligence, acting for the National Security Council, shall have the cooperation of ~~of~~ several intelligence agencies to insure the full and proper implementation and execution of the above established policies and objectives.

new 6

CONFIDENTIAL

~~Add to~~ New 6 -

~~And~~, the interpretation of these established over-all policies and objectives shall negate the basic principle that all departmental representatives abroad are individually responsible for the collection and for the appropriate transmission to their Departments of all intelligence ^{information} ~~material~~ pertinent to their departmental missions.